In case you missed it ...

Tour of the Renovated John Deutsch Centre & Mitchell Hall

On July 17, 15 FHF members toured the renovated John Deutsch University Centre (JDUC) and Mitchell Hall. Tony Gkotsis of Queen's Facility Management gave us an exceptional tour highlighting the rationale for blending elements of the old JDUC building with more modern spaces, and making the JDUC a real hub for campus activities. Old and new rooms and halls were woven together into functional and beautiful spaces in the renovated building. The tour of Mitchell Hall showed what a university sports facility could be for both everyday and more professional athletes. Tony is very keen on giving us a tour of more heritage buildings next year so be ready!

Watch for more details on this members-only fall event:
